Regional Innovation Forum 2016
towards Grand Design of National Spatial Development
－International Technology Exchange between India and Japan－

Organized by   Southern TOHOKU Research Institute for Neuroscience
Cooperated by Technology Forum for the Future Asia (TeFFA) [1]
The Nobel Sustainability Trust Foundation (NSF)
The Solar Energy Society of India (SESI)
Michael Nobel Laboratory, Osaka City University [2]
Society for Prolongation of Healthy Life Expectancy (SPHLE)

Program:

14:00-14:30   Opening address
Kazyo Watanabe,
President, Southern TOHOKU Research Institute for Neuroscience

14:30-14:35   Profile of Dr. Michael Nobel
Kyoji Kunitomo, Vice-chairperson, Technology Forum for the Future Asia

14:35-14:55   Keynote speech "Alternative energy now and in the future"
Michael Nobel

14:55-15:05   "Prospect of collaboration between India and Japan in the field of renewable energy"
Rajinder Kumar Kaura, Chairperson, The Solar Energy Society of India

15:05-15:15   "Smartization of Jabalpur City[4], Madhya Pradesh (MP)[3], India
– Activities at universities in Jabalpur"
Khem Chand Dhimole, Director, Advaita Developer & Promotion Pvt. Ltd., MP;
Adviser to the prime minister, Andhra Pradesh (AP), India

15:15-15:30   "Innovation in Fukushima Region－Strategy and Koriyama Model, Ken-inn (House for health-maintenance medicine): L-Cub"
Kaoru Sakatani, Professor, College of Engineering, Nihon University;
Director, Nihon University College of Engineering Worldwide Research Center for Advanced Engineering & Technology (NEWCAT)

15:30-15:45   Summary
Towards collaboration between Fukushima and Madhya Pradesh, India

15:45-16:15   World Gospel Camp (Chorus)
Jenna and her friends

[1] Technology Forum for the Future Asia (TeFFA)
The Forum has been founded in 2013 by members from Tokyo Institute of Technology (Tokyo Tech), including former professors having abundant experiences and advanced technologies.

[2] Michael Nobel Laboratory, Osaka City University
Osaka City University invited Dr. Michael Nobel as a distinguished professor and opened Michael Nobel Laboratory at Research Center for Artificial Photosynthesis (ReCAP) in October, 2015.

[3] Madhya Pradesh
A state located at the central part of India, which has a land area of $308,144m^2$, and a population of 60,385,118, the second biggest state in India.

[4] Jabalpur City
The capital of Jabalpur Prefecture, located at the central region of State of Madhya Pradesh, having a land area of $10160m^2$ and a population of 1,268,848 in 2011.